DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendments and accompanying remarks filed 3/15/04 have been entered and carefully considered. Applicant's amendment is found to overcome the 102 rejection set forth in the previous action. Despite this advance, the amendments are not found to patentably distinguish the claims over the prior art and Applicant's arguments are not found persuasive of patentability for reasons set forth herein below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cole (6444214).

While the polymer of Cole contains additives it would still be dispersible without them.

Cole is silent with respect to the amount of binder used. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art to utilize the binder in applicant's claimed percentages. Such a modification would have been motivated by the desire to optimize the amount of force needed to disperse the nonwoven material.
